TUESDAY, MARCH 15, - 1892.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce BUCKLEY LEAVELL,
a candidate for State Senator from Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Harroldown Democrat is for Cleveland anyhow.

Senator Hill will speak at Jackson, Miss., to-day and at Savannah, Ga., Thursday.

The Texas Republicans in Convention instructed for Harrison. This is probably due to the efforts of Col.
Snort to solidify things.

The Lick telescope should be turned on the locality where the Blair boom is supposed to be. A search has failed to find it.

The hound that used to be Belling Sea when some of us studied Geography has disappeared of late, like most of the scents that were sent to work in its waters.

There is no good reason for establishing an exclusively "female asylum." In all the lunatic asylums the male and female wards are entirely separated.

Mrs. Sarah Althea Hill Sharon Terry, the noted California adventures, has ended her career in the state asylum at Stockton. Force had to be used to commit her last week.

The Carrollton Democrat last week issued a very creditable double number, profusely illustrated with portraits of leading citizens and cuts of buildings in and about Carrollton.

Seattle, Wash., which went Republican at the last election by 1,800 majority has been swept by the Democrats by 800 majority. Mayor and nearly all city officers were elected.

Among those suggested in connection with the victory of the Republicans in the Congressional District are Rodney Hazard, D. B. Redwine, D. D. Sub-lett, Jno. P. Salyers, Thos. Turner, R.
F. Day and Geo. B. Nelson.

Explosion of fire damp in a mine at Brussels, Belgium, Friday, killed 215 miners. The mine caught on fire in the interior a few hours after the explosion had been rescued, and all those not killed outright were burned to death. The mine is still burning.

The Bowling Green Democrat observes a "Small Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie" as a delegate of the State to Chicago as a delegate of the State at large and confer upon him the honor of nominating Hon. John G. Carriles. This would bring forth a speech which only the "Quinine Statehood" could deliver.

Capt. W. J. Stone has announced himself a candidate for re-election to Congress in the First District. This action was hastened by the formal announcements of Judge Campbell of Paducah and Judge Robertson, of Mayfield, both of whom are already on the track. The race is probably made up with these three and the new men want an early primary election to settle the matter.

Fred Staley returned to his home in Illinois last fall, after an absence of some years in Kansas. Last week he read in a newspaper that two of his former compatriots in Kansas had been indicted for his murder, and at once started to go as a witness in their favor. The young men were last seen with him, and it is supposed they were indicted on circumstantial evidence. Staley having told no one of his intention to leave Kansas.

The action of the Republican convention here Monday was a part of the program the "ins" have arranged for the district. Messrs. Anderson and Sebree are to be the district delegates and Collector Feland is to be put forward for one of the delegates from the large districts. The two cousins have already instructed to this effect and the other will fail to line up this week. The colored brother as usual is not in it, except to do the voting.

The Georgetown Times authority for the statement that a Scott county horse was put under the influence of a narcotic while being dosed for the colic and while asleep in the pasture was skinned by a hide thief. Subsequently the horse awoke and went to grazing minus his hide. As the local editor of the Times is a pretty young lady, there is no room for doubting this story. It is usual, however, for country quadrupeds to get themselves skinned in large cities.

Mr. W. A. Wilgus will represent the Kentuckian at the annual meeting of the National Press Association, which meets in San Francisco next May. Mr.
Wilgus will remain in San Francisco about a month, during which the trip will occupy about a month, as one of the features of the meeting will be an excursion to Alaska.
Among the other delegates from this State who will probably go will be Mr. Robt. E. Morningside and wife of Bowling Green. The only unquestionable feature about this trip is that those who take it will make the Kentucky trip.

Who Shall be Delegate?

Under that head the Owensboro Messenger discusses the subject of who should be chosen to represent the district to the annual meeting of the National Press Association, to be held in San Francisco in May. The writer suggests his name in connection with one of these places. Of course the honor is not one to be sought, but it is at the same time one that should be appreciated by any man and all the more if it should come unsolicited from the courtesy of a district filled with distinguished men and statesmen.
We copy the Messenger's article:

"The Democrats of this section of Kentucky have not been heretofore very particular as to who represented them as delegates to the national convention, these honest fellows only going to any who might feel disposed to make a canvas for them.
It is always considered that the representatives should be men of ability, popularity or prominence.
Before the scramble begins, therefore, it might be well to look around and see in whom this trust could best be reposed. It is early, but no harm can be done in looking into the merits of some of the promising young men of the State and the district.

There is one the name of whom whose name would meet with the approval of all with whom he is acquainted. We refer to Reuben A.
Miller, the brilliant young Owensboro lawyer, whose eloquence electrifies every audience in which he is heard.
It is well remembered that he carried the convention for the handson method of spelling, this was but one of many oratorical triumphs. He would be an ornament to his State as well as to the district in the national Democratic convention. His high integrity and conscientious devotion to his duty are a sufficient guarantee that he will be a credit to the State and to his constituents. He is one who has plucked from society one of the fairest and purest flowers that ever bloomed in Trenton's Society. May she long live to cheer him along the path of life, is the wish of all who know her.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alderson Gray is quite sick with pneumonia.

Mr. J. R. Pace, one of Todd's most substantial citizens, died Saturday also his sister-in-law, Miss Mary Bass-ford is ill.

Another prominent young man of the party, Mr. Chas. M. Mac-Machado, has been elected a delegate for the handson method of spelling.

He is a man of great merit and ability, and we heartily congratulate him, truly, for his success.

A MAD POET

printed for a newspaper one evening, and thrown it over the door of his establishment, because he printed the verses wrong. Said he: "I wrote, 'To drive the Devil from the house, you'll put it a pot of grease.'"

The mortified printer presented him with a bill for $100, Dr. Pierce, a physician, Pellets, a year's subscription and an apology.

The little "Pellets" perfectly cure sick and nervous headaches, biliousness, constipation, piles, rheumatism, sore stomach, bowels and liver. It's a large contract, but the smallest savings in the world will help you to buy it.

Pleasant Pellets. They're the smallest, easiest and most effective medicine ever made. They work in the right way. They cleanse and renovate the liver, stomach and bowels, and cure all diseases mildly and gently. You feel the good they do—but you don't feel them doing it.

They're the cheapest pills you can buy. They're the best. They're the best satisfaction, or your money is returned. You only pay for the good you get.

Their proprietors are Dr. Pierce and Dr. Pellets. Their medicines are sold on, through druggists.

WHAT IS WHAT?

Barrow's Patent Liniment and a Series of Illustrations of it.

No one has ever told us exactly what it is. Dr. Isaac Barrow, the inventor and driver of the business with him with himself, has given the best definition yet known, and he confesses that "often it consists in one hardly knows what." He says, in his old-fashioned "Sometimes it is like a pat allusion to a known story, or in a seasonable application of a proverb, saying, or in forgetting an opportunity; sometimes a playful metaphor; sometimes a presumptuous bluntness given it being. Sometimes it is a name, and sometimes it is what is strange; sometimes from a friendly wrestling of obvious master to the boy."

Is there a "little" "Pelles" in a pat allusion to a known story, or in a seasonable ap-
ful metaphor; sometimes a presumptuous
friendly wrestling of obvious master to
the boy?"
